Last year, PWP awarded $13,100 to local charities. This year, PWP will be donating to the Westhill Educational Foundation, the Westhill Booster Club, and additional charities chosen through a student writing contest.

CHARITY WRITING CONTEST: GRADES 2nd-12th

WHICH CHARITY MEANS THE MOST TO YOU?

Sponsored By Your Westhill Teachers Union: WDEA

Write an essay to convince the judges to donate to your charity. PWP will donate to each winner's chosen charity, and the winner from each grade category will receive the following prize:

Winner from Grades 9-12: $100 cash prize, a free race registration and t-shirt, and special recognition at the race

Winner From Grades 7-8: $100 cash prize, a free race registration and t-shirt, and special recognition at the race

Winner From Grades 5-6: $75 cash prize, a free race registration and t-shirt, and special recognition at the race

Winner From Grades 2-4: $50 cash prize

Essays may be typed or handwritten and should include:

- Your name, grade, and homeroom/classroom teacher
- The name and a description of your charity
- Reasons why you think we should donate the money to the charity
- Explanations about how this charity will impact people and/or a personal connection about how the charity helped you or someone you know. Special consideration will be given to essays that discuss how the charity has made a local impact

Submit essays to your English/ELA/classroom teacher or email them to: sstarowicz@westhillschools.org

Deadline For Submission:
Friday, March 6th
